

REPORT ON EXTENSION LECTURE CUM WORKSHOP
‘CELEBRATION OF AN ICONIC CULTURAL FIGURE & IMPORTANCE
OF THEATRE IN EDUCATION’ [14th Sept. 2016]

Guru Nanak College of Education, Punjabi Bagh has conducted an Extension Lecture on the theme ‘Celebration of an Iconic Cultural Figure & Importance of Theatre in Education’ on 14th Sept. 2016 in the College premises.

The workshop is the part of B.Ed. Curriculum, Paper code 155, titled ‘Understanding the Self’. The main purpose of the workshop was to teach students about the importance and effectiveness of arts and team work in Education and how group work and arts helps in teaching and learning. Mr. Lucky Kataria, Specialised in the same field (Performing Arts) was the resource person for the event. The workshop was divided into 2 sessions.

Session-1: in which Mr. Lucky Kataria explained about 3 Indian Iconic Cultural Figures: Rabindranath Tagore, Saadat Hasan Manto and Habib Tanveer. He discussed about their Life History and contribution in the field of Dramas, Arts and Related Writings.

Session-2: this session was for the improvisation of students by performing skit or play on the work of above figures. Some theater games were organized for the better performance and knowledge of students.

Students were told about their achievements, work and various stories and novels written by them and how these stories influence our lives now and then. Many students took part in the activities held by the sir and the whole class was very much involved in the discussion for the whole time. Overall the entire workshop was fun as well as an interesting, unique, knowledable, creative and very involving for the students.