

REPORT ON THE SEMINAR

‘GLIMPSES OF DIFFERENT CHILDHOODS IN INDIA’ [8th Nov. 2016]

In the Journey towards understanding the self and to sensitize students about the stories of Indian Children growing up in vastly differing circumstances, Guru Nanak College of Education has conducted a Seminar on the theme ‘Glimpses of different childhoods in India’ on 8th Nov., 2016 at 10:00 a.m. in the college Premises. The Resource person for the event was the honorable Dr. M.C. Sharma, the senior most Professor, Director in the School of Education, Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), Maidan Garhi, New Delhi. He was also a project Director of UNICEF project on Teacher Education in IGNOU. The event was started with the welcome speech and an honor in the form of bouquet given by our respected principal ma'am and continued by the lecture on Childhood stages, Diversity in Childhood in India, Childhood growing in adverse situations and their Family Structure based on Income, In-Depth Case Study, Procedure and steps to be followed in Case Study, Preparation of Report, Discussion and Suggestion and Different Situation when case study needs to be prepared. The lecture is followed by Question Answer Session. All the queries of the students were resolved. And just after the Seminar students were visited for Field work on the places like NGOs, Special Schools, orphaned, Slum areas, Street beggars etc. as suggested by the Resource Person, They went in the groups of 8 to 10 students. The Seminar was really a great success and was very knowledgeable for the students as well as for the faculty members. I am really delighted and thankful to our director sir and principal ma'am for providing such a wonderful and knowledgeable experience.
