

REPORT ON THE WORKSHOP [23rd Sept. 2016]

‘UNDERSTANDING WORKING IN GROUPS THROUGH ROLEPLAYS AND ENACTMENTS’

In the Journey towards understanding the self and to make students understand the importance of working in group, importance of Team Work and to make students the responsible citizen, Guru Nanak College of Education has conducted a workshop on the theme ‘Understanding Working in Groups through Role-plays and Enactments’ on 23rd Sept, 2016 at 12:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the college Premises. S. Gurminder Singh Matharu, Chairman, Hr. Education, DSGMC was the Chief Guest for the event. Students performed in the groups of 8 to 10 students each and total 10 groups acted on the themes of Social issues. The 10 Plays/Skits/Dramas /Street Plays with titles Dharam Ki Savtantrta, Andhvishwas, Child Abuse, Garbh Chunav, Ignorance of Society, Acid Attack, Gender Discrimination, Dowry System, Parental & Peer Pressure and Status Discrimination performed in the sequential order. The way they performed was marvelous. All the performances were speechless and made the judges difficult to choose the best 3 and the team who got 1st prize was Ignorance of Society. Team Child abuse and Acid Attack got 2nd prize and Garbh Chunav got 3rd Prize. The event was closed with the speech of Director Sir our respected Chairman Sir. The Event was a great success and a relief for students as well as faculty members after the full week schedule of nonstop hard work.